About this Report

This report is based upon Abstract Reasoning Aptitude, an online test of the ability to reason with information presented in an abstract format.

The results are based on a comparison with an international group of over 7,000 professionals and managers. The results in this report are presented on a 1 to 10 Sten scale, where 1 indicates low performance and 10 indicates high performance on the test. The margin of error that should be allowed before concluding that there is a difference between scores is indicated by the diamond shape.

When reading this report, please remember that it is based on the information gained from the test completion only. It describes performance on this particular test, rather than performance at work or study. Research suggests that ability tests can be powerful predictors of successful performance in study and work activities.

The information contained in this report is confidential and every effort should be made to ensure that it is stored in a secure place.

The information contained within this report is likely to provide a valid measure of aptitude for 12 to 24 months.

The report is based on the results of the online test that the respondent was invited to complete under unsupervised conditions. The identity of the actual respondent has not been verified by a test administrator. Further testing under supervised conditions is recommended for high-stake decision making.

This report was produced using Saville Assessment software systems and has been generated electronically. Saville Assessment do not guarantee that it has not been changed or edited. We can accept no liability for the consequences of the use of this report.

Introduction to Assessment Report

This report provides feedback on the responses of Sample Candidate to the Abstract Reasoning Aptitude test.

Total Score

This test measures abstract reasoning, which is important in the world of work for a variety of roles. This section of the report provides a total test score relative to the comparison group: Professionals & Managers (INT, IA, 2021)

The Total Score indicates how well Sample Candidate has performed overall on the test.

Aptitude & Pace Comparison

Aptitude and pace scores are shown for each of the areas in the test. These scores are compared in a graph using a 1 to 10 sten scale, with the sten values given in brackets. The pace score is based on the candidate's response time for the questions they completed compared to the average response time for the same questions. Pace is shown from slow at the bottom of the graph to fast at the top. Aptitude runs from low on the left of the graph to high on the right.
